

The Beginning by Luxmuralis at Peterborough Cathedral, 23rd—26th November 2022. Plan showing route and car parking

1 Entrance and tickets

The only entrance is at the Norman Arch, on Cathedral Square, between Starbucks and the Nat West Bank. Have your tickets ready to be checked. Any remaining tickets will be on sale at this point. Please note that there are no Cathedral toilets as you enter.

2 Viewing is here

The first part of the show is projected onto the front of the Cathedral. It is best viewed from the road parallel with the Cathedral (Stewards will direct you). The road is closed to traffic during the show. After 20 minutes you will be directed inside.

3 Exit and toilets

Once you have experienced the show both outside and inside the Cathedral, you will exit through the South Transept, where toilets are also located. Follow the directions of Stewards to leave the site via Gravel Walk. If you would like to exit via Wheel Yard, ask a Steward who will direct you around the back of the Cathedral (see dotted red line on the plan). There is NO EXIT via the Norman Arch where you came in.

4 Route to/from car parks

Nearby car parks are Car Haven PE1 1YX and Bishop's Road PE1 1YZ (£2.50 charge). On arrival, walk down Bishop's Road then turn right into Bridge Street (pedestrianised) to head for the Entrance and ticket point (1).

PLEASE NOTE: There is no admittance to the show via Gravel Walk or Wheel Yard, which are for exit only.
