Definitions

Tickets are set up to suit individual events. These are the words usually used to describe types of ticket.

Standard This ticket price applies to everyone, except where a concessionary price is offered.

Adult This price applies to all adults, except where a concessionary price is offered.

Child This price applies to those aged from 3 years up to 16 years, inclusive. Those aged less than 3 years, who do not require a seat but sit on an adult's lap or in a pushchair ('babes in arms') are admitted free of charge.

Concession The following are eligible for the concessionary price, should this be offered:

Children aged 3 – 16 years (see 'Child' above)

Anyone in full-time education

Anyone aged 65 years or over

We reserve the right to request proof of eligibility.

Family Family tickets are for two adults and two children aged 3-16 years.

Carer This free ticket is available to someone who attends solely to assist a paying ticket holder. For example, they might be signing for a deaf person, assisting someone with learning difficulties or providing help to a physically disabled person. The person being assisted buys a ticket as normal. Carer tickets are not for adults caring for children unless the child has a disability. We reserve the right to request proof of eligibility.

Unreserved Unreserved means that, within the price band chosen, you have not booked a specific seat. Instead, on arrival you choose where to sit within the allocated area. The earlier you arrive, the more choice you have. Doors normally open 30 minutes before a performance or event.

Ticket Your ticket(s) are within the confirmation email you receive on booking. This can be shown on arrival either on your phone, or as a paper print-out.

Before making a purchase of tickets from Peterborough Cathedral, you will be asked to confirm that you have accepted these Terms and Conditions.

1. Refunds

If the event concerned is offered at more than one time or date, Peterborough Cathedral may be able to transfer a booking to an alternative time, subject to availability.

In doing so we will be reliant on the information held within the online ticket system, so please ensure that you have supplied the correct information when booking. Peterborough Cathedral will also advertise the cancellation of an event on their website and via social media. We will endeavour to transfer your booking to a new date, but should that not be possible a refund will be made to the original purchaser.

4. Admission

A ticket may be used to admit the bearer to Peterborough Cathedral only for the event specified, at the date and at the time indicated on the ticket.

5. Refusal of entry

The Chapter of Peterborough Cathedral reserves the right to refuse entry or to cancel the event at any time.

6. Lost property

Peterborough Cathedral cannot accept responsibility for the loss of any personal items. Should you lose an item and wish to enquire whether it has been handed in, please email info@peterborough-cathedral.org.uk with details and we will try to help you.
